

E-Books at SRH University Libraries

The libraries of the SRH Universities purchase e-books via the aggregator ProQuest.

TECHNICAL REQUIREMENTS

To access e-books a Proxy-Configuration-URL is required. An appropriate manual can be found at the top under the category "Research" on the library's homepage. If you have any technical questions, please contact the university's IT department.

RESEARCH

You can access SRH e-books via the platform Ebook Central and the SRH online catalogue \(OPAC\).

In order to open e-books via the online catalog (OPAC), please copy the e-book link to a new window in your browser.

The subjects on which the university library has e-books can be found here.

For search tips you can go to the help platform of ProQuest.

USAGE

For reading e-books you can use your Browser. Please click on "Read Online" at the desired title.

You can save a certain number of pages at once permanently on your computer. To do this, click on the "PDF symbol" of the e-book. Each publisher specifies the number of pages individually. After about 10-15 minutes, the quota of downloadable pages will recharge again.

You can save all e-books of interest in a personal bookshelf. Please create an account for this.
